

June 8, 2006
Kane County Senior Resources

Networking began at 8:30 a.m.

The meeting of the KCSR was called to order at 9:02 a.m. by Roger Carr, President.

Members and guests introduced themselves and made brief announcements.

The minutes from the May KCSR minutes were approved.

Treasurers Report

Kathy Wetters announced that we have a balance of $4847.76.

Membership/Dues

- Melissa Carrick announced that a list of members paid in 2006 was posted and membership applications are available in the lobby.
- In order to have your name/business listed in the new directory, dues must be paid by the end of June. A vote to amend the by-laws to change the fiscal year will be made in the Fall.

Legislative Committee

- Eric Weakly asked that anyone interested in being on the committee to put together the legislative forum for next year see him.
- He briefly discussed the Elder abuse and Neglect Act, stating that the addition of a self-neglect provision will likely increase the number of cases.
- He also reported on a new law that would require a background check for sex offences on residents entering nursing homes and assisted living facilities.

Senior Fair

Jonathon Johnson said that he is already getting calls from organizations interested in participating in the fair. He asked for volunteers to sign up to help with the fair.

New Business

- Micki Miller said that we have a box of directories and encouraged members to take enough to meet their needs over the summer.
- Donald Mitkess distributed a survey regarding marketing activities for KCSR with a possible golf outing to be scheduled.

Announcements

Roger Carr announced that the KCSR Board decided to donate $500 to Elderday Center to thank them for the use of the room for our meetings.

A panel discussion regarding elder law was presented by Jonathon Johnson, Dan Parsons, Connie Renzi and Linda Strohschein.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:10 a.m.

Please note: There will be no meeting of the Kane County Senior Resources in July or August. The next KCSR Board meeting will be Wednesday, September 6, 2006 at 8:45 a.m. at the Panara on Wilson Street in Batavia. The next meeting of the KCSR will be Thursday, September 14 at the Elderday Center in Batavia.

Have a great summer!
Respectfully submitted,
Liz Wiggins, KCSR Secretary
